

International Activities at FAU for Teaching Degree Students

Winter Semester 2022/23 (last update: 04.10.2022)

In this programme, you will find information about international activities for teaching degree students in the winter semester 2022/23 at FAU. The programme is continuously updated and provided by the project "FAU Teacher Education International". The project is covered by funds from the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) provided by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF). To stay up-to-date about international activities and for further information about the project "FAU Teacher Education International", visit the project website: <https://www.teachedinter.fau.eu/>.

Stay up to date with our StudOn course as a central information, advice and networking platform for international activities in teacher training. In our StudOn course you will receive information about international activities "at home" and virtual offers of partner universities, announcements about lectures and workshops of guest lecturers from abroad, announcements, materials to enhance international and intercultural competence etc.
