

Frequently asked questions about the Oskar Karl Forster Scholarship for doctoral candidates

Who is eligible for funding?

- All doctoral students who can prove their financial need are eligible for funding.
- A grant for printing costs may be granted on the basis of the grade for the doctoral thesis confirmed by the supervisor.

How much funding is awarded?

The grant for printing costs is between 100 and 500 euros and is awarded as a one-time payment. The amount awarded is based on the purchase receipt submitted.

How many times a year is funding awarded?

Study grants are usually awarded once a year.

How often can I receive this funding?

Funding is only awarded once.

How do I prove my financial need?

Your current monthly net income may not be higher than 1,800 euros.

Date of purchase for the grant for printing costs

The proof of purchase must be issued after the approval date.

Your bank details in campo

- A German bank account must be provided that is in the name of the person receiving the grant.
- You can obtain the required payment partner number via IdM: www.idm.fau.de